

~ Happy Holidays 2008 ~

Holiday joy and holiday cheer

Is this time of year, and your gift is here.

Our annual mums are our measure of thanks

And the fire extinguishers are not simply pranks.

We're reminding you that your fire extinguisher is rated

But it's a gift - not our responsibility - to keep the thing dated.

G'd forbid your turkey's in flames or menorah has fallen,

The fire department nearby insures help is not stallin'.

Get Renter's Insurance to be just that much safer

In event of a fire, burglary or quaker.

In order that peace, love and harmony abound

This season is dedicated to good will all around.

So if you believe in ol' Nick then hang a huge stocking

Meanwhile drink plenty of water, stretch and keep walking

Accept hearty good wishes from Jose, Alesia, Lilliana, Kimberly, Greg, Rene, Sully, Hack,
Charles (who does all the talking).

Best from Leroy, Miguel, Jaime, Ricky, Joey, and Bart.

Our aim is to serve you and shoot from the heart.

But that don't bring hot water and lighting, we know.

So thanks for your patience this year, and though

You think we know what is wrong with your place
