

June 7, 2010

To: Golden Hill resident
From: 239-Bart (2278)
Re: June news

We are here to serve you and we depend on you for eyes on water leaks, blown light bulbs, any problems and suggestions. Keep criticism and suggestions coming, but promise to always call us again if you fail to get any adequate response from us. Note that we continue to thank you with $100 for any resident referral from you who rents from us. Thank you very much.

Signal trouble with FREE Wi-Fi broadband internet? Please call Drew (760-204-0004) of SoCalFreeNet.org Community Relations for technical solutions, or if you'd like to volunteer help. Looking for a true geek - - enthusiastic about technology with positive attitude. Technology is a key for social change and advancement.

Take $10 off next rent payment when you enclose proof of voting sticker. My choices are Guv Jerry Brown; Sect'y Debra Bowen; Controller Chiang; Treasurer Lockyear; Insurance Jones; Senator Boxer; State Senate Gila Jones; Judges Lewis, Longstretch, Wohlfiel; Prop 13, 15, A, B = YES; Prop 16, 17, D = NO.

To encourage start up innovation in communal digs like the "HIVE" on 770 Eleventh we are cleaning ground floor space in Pink Palace for working professionals to collaborate in flexible space. Desks, plugs, lights and comradery will make for welcome work place away from home. Keep us posted with any interest in our experiment. With such a lousy economy I see no magic recovery immediately as there are grumblings of deflation or stagflation, so we shall need to create our own future and innovate here.

Searching for a yoga teacher to give class weekly at 25th Street park, to whom we'll pay $30/class until it gets up to speed. Also any folks interested in community farming on vacant lots contact us to form some cooperative. Finally, is anyone interested in producing Golden Hill summer film series evenings?

Fern Street Circus and Sophia Isadora Academy of Circus Arts (<http://sdcircus.com/>) of greater Golden Hill have summer camps lined up. Please help us locate a deserving child to award absolutely FREE one class session.

One of the greatest food finds ever by our very own Building Super Jose are fish tacos for $1.25 from the taco truck in the little parking lot at 22nd & Imperial (n.w. corner), where there are taco trucks and stands all over. For freshest produce visit North Park Farmer's Market (32nd University) Thursday after 3pm, then Hillcrest's on Sunday, 9am-2pm

FREE teeth cleaning (I done it - was great!) at Southwestern College Dental Hygiene Clinic, 880 National City Blvd (they don't answer their phone, 216-6663); stop in. Also if you are ever hugely frustrated and unable to find any warm body to discuss problem then try www.dialahuman.com next time to cut through huge bureaucracies!

Question authority, be well, and stay in touch.. Bart